TEXAS' BEST

Also participating in the international modern and contemporary dialogue fostered by the Dallas Art Fair is the following roll call of stellar dealers based in Texas. Take note.

MARTY WALKER GALLERY, Dallas. This materials- and process-oriented gallerist reps such important Texans as highly inventive sculptors Frances Bagley and Tom Orr, who are equally at home in a white cube or opera set (they're currently on view in the DMA's "Performance/Art," through March 21), and provocative puppeteer-turned-painter Wayne White of Pee-wee's Playhouse renown.
